Our Events

Freshman Orientation Camp (FOC) is an annual event jointly organised by PBMUKS and NUSMS. The camp serves to welcome Malay-Muslim freshmen students to NUS through fun and engaging activities. Through the camp, freshmen will be given the opportunity to know more about learning in NUS, such as the online systems used, eg. CORS. Moreover, seniors can use this platform to give freshmen tips in excelling in their majors and faculties. The FOC allows freshmen and seniors to forge new and deep friendships with one another.

As part of the FOC organising committee, undergraduates will choose to be part of the following sub-committees: APD, Secretary, Treasury, Programmes, Marketing, Logistics, Publicity & Welfare. Expected commitment period for this event would be from October 2018 to July 2019. *Interested undergraduates may speak to the PD regarding commitment issues.

#PARADIGMA is the latest installation under the Community Outreach (Pendekatan Masyarakat) Secretariat. #PARADIGMA is a series of events which acts as an intervention programme to support the Malay Youths-at-risk in Singapore. This programme aims to encourage the youths to make a positive change in their lives so as to reach their full potential. This programme also aims to challenge the stereotypes of the youths through interaction with the community.

Undergraduates are welcome to contribute to this valuable project. As an ad-hoc committee, undergraduates will play a vital role in the planning and execution of the programme by choosing to take up a role in either of the following sub-committees: APD, Secretary, Treasury, Programmes, Marketing, Logistics, Publicity & Welfare. Expected commitment period for this event would be from September 2018 to February 2019.

Pesta Pantun has been an annual trademark event by the Literary Arts (Persuratan) Secretariat, running for its 23rd consecutive year. Students from various institutions, undergraduates as well as the general public look forward to not only experience but also to participate in the event. This year, Pesta Pantun aims to be more impactful in spreading the beauty and the depth that is embedded within Malay literary culture while still being relevant, modern and critical to current issues. This event welcomes the Malay community, young and old, to embrace our treasured literary culture for a whole month and to hopefully inculcate it in our daily lives.

As an ad-hoc committee member for Pesta Pantun, undergraduates will play a key role in running the entire programme by joining their preferred sub-committee: APD, Treasury/Marketing, Publicity, Logistics, Programmes, Secretary or Welfare. Expected commitment for this event will be from October 2018 to April 2019.

ME{R}DU is a music workshop and concert organised annually by the Publications (Penerbitan) Secretariat. The event aims to guide participants to think more critically and be more aware of pertinent societal issues through the use of music and new media. It serves to boost the relevance, as well as enrich Malay music in our current society. Through interactions with well acclaimed music experts, we hope that participants and undergraduates in the committee will be equipped with a critical and creative mind.

As a member of the ME{R}DU committee, undergraduates will choose to take up a role in either of the following sub-committees: APD, Marketing, Logistics, Programmes, Publicity, Secretary, Treasury, Welfare. Expected commitment for this event would be from October 2018 to March 2019.

Pentas Budaya is an annually-held Malay theatrical production by NUS undergraduates under the Performing Arts (Seni) Secretariat. Pentas Budaya aims to raise issues that are pertinent in our society so that audience can reflect, and hopefully take actions against these issues. It serves to educate the public in an entertaining manner and strives to benefit, as well as, enrich the lives of undergraduates involved in the production, on stage and off stage.

Pentas Budaya seeks to be an avenue for undergraduates to learn new skills and gain new experiences. No theatrical knowledge nor experience is necessary. We welcome everyone to join their preferred sub-committee: APD, Director, Secretary, Stage Manager, Logistics, Lights, Sounds, Wardrobe, Treasurer, Marketing, Publicity, Photo/Videography, Welfare. Expected commitment will be from November 2018 to June 2019.
