2016-2017 Best Example of Teamwork by a Student Organization

Texas Tech University

2016-2017 Student Organization Awards

Best Example of Teamwork by a Student Organization

This award recognizes the student organization that most embodied the elements of teamwork, collaboration, and quality programming that benefit the Texas Tech University Community (either throughout the year or through a single successful program). This award also recognizes that the recipient worked effectively with other student organizations, University departments, and/or the greater Lubbock community. All applicants in this category should note this is for on-campus programming.

To complete the online nomination for this award, the nominator will need:

To provide a Personal Statement as to how the nominated student organization meets the award criteria
A letter of support from another individual/organization who can speak to how the nominated student organization met the award criteria.
3 photos of the nominated student organization(s) in action

The nominator also has the option to include:

One additional letter of support
2 other items of supporting materials (certificates, honors, achievements, event flyers, etc.)

Letters of Support

Letters of Support are important when submitting a nomination because they speak on how the organization meets the award criteria from another individual's perspective.

Optional: It is optional to upload a letter of support from another individual who can speak to how the student organization meets the award criteria. Make sure the individual indicates their relationship to the nominated Student Organization. It is strongly recommend that this letter comes from an individual (not a member of the organization or advisor) who collaborated with or was positively impacted by this organization's contribution.
