Maryland Leadership Summit (MLS) is a one-day dynamic experience designed to take your leadership skills and efficacy to the next level through interactive simulations, dialogues, and group discussions. The Maryland Leadership Summit is created for emerging leaders who are looking for a launching point into leadership development at University of Maryland.

Date: Saturday, October 6, 2018 from 9:00am-4:30pm
Location: Colony Ballroom, Stamp Student Union

Summit is open to all current UMD students and brings together participants of diverse backgrounds, majors, and experiences.

Why sign up for Summit?

Swag. We'll give all participants a MLEAD laptop sticker and leadership development workbook.
Networking. You'll get to meet students all across campus who are also interested in being leaders on campus. Start forming your network early - you'll never know when these connections could be helpful in your leadership journey.
Conferences Certificate. Summit is the first step in completing the Maryland Leadership Conferences series. When you complete all 3 programs (Summit, Conference, and Advance) during your time at Maryland, you'll receive special recognition at the Leadership & Community Service-Learning Awards.
Build your Resume. Summit is a great experience to highlight on your resume or in an interview for jobs and internships. We'll even help you figure out how to include it on your resume and how to best communicate the learning and knowledge gained.

If you register and are no longer able to participate, please notify us at mdlead@umd.edu as soon as possible. Please note that if you cancel after Monday October 1, or don't show up to the event, you may incur a cancellation fee of $25.

You will receive a confirmation email after submitting your registration.
