2017-2018 Campus Leadership & Involvement Award Nominations

Dear Student Leaders, Faculty, & Staff,

In celebration of the excellence of our student leaders and organizations, the Office of Student Engagement will be hosting the 2017-2018 Campus Involvement & Leadership Awards Ceremony on Friday, April 20th at The Longboat Key Club & Resort in Longboat Key, FL. You can find the awards packet HERE.

We encourage you to read through the descriptions of the awards and nominate student organizations and individuals whom you consider to embody the spirit of the awards. Self-nominations for both individual and organization awards is allowed. Only USF Sarasota-Manatee Registered Student Organizations are eligible to win the organization awards. All nominations must be submitted via OrgSync.

Nomination forms are due no later than Tuesday April 2nd, 2018 via OrgSync. You are permitted to include supplemental documentation to support the strength of your nomination. Late nomination forms will not be accepted.

All nominees and nominators will be invited to the awards ceremony. All nominees will be recognized at the ceremony and the winner will be presented with a physical award. Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact the Office of Student Engagement at (941) 359-4268. Thank you for your continued support of our student organizations and student leaders at USF Sarasota-Manatee. We look forward to celebrating your achievements with you!

Individual Awards

Outstanding Emerging Leader: Recognizes a new or up-and-coming student leader for taking the initiative to make a difference to the campus community from beyond the classroom, while exhibiting integrity, leadership, and teamwork.

Outstanding Student Leader: Recognizes an established student leader for being highly active and holding leadership roles within student organizations, involvement in service activities and activities within the University and surrounding community.

Outstanding Student Government Employee: This award will honor one Student Government employee for their exemplary service to the Student Government Association. All nominees should be on the payroll for Student Government for the 2017-2018 academic year.

The Giving Bull: This award will honor one student who has demonstrated a commitment to service within our local, regional, or global community. Strong nominations will show how the student embraces community service, has shown individual development as a result of that service, and serves as a role model to their peers.
The Unsung Hero Award: This award is presented to a student who, through their behind the scenes involvement in campus life, have exemplified a commitment to enhancing campus life at USFSM.

Outstanding Student Organization President: Recognizes a Student Organization president that has made a significant impact in the leadership and development of their organization.

Inclusion Excellence (Individual): Recognizes a member of a student organization who has demonstrated and sustained a passion for the advancement of diversity and inclusion.

Organization Advisor of the Year: Recognizes an organization advisor that has provided superb support, guidance, and direction to the student organization. The advisor should have been actively involved in the student organization's activities and events during the 2017-2018 academic year. Any individual that currently serves as an advisor for a Recognized Student Organization is eligible for nomination.

The Bull-iever Award: This award honors a current faculty or staff member who shows continuing support for campus co-curricular involvement. Nominees may serve as a student organization advisor, but may not win both awards during the same year.
